"My wife and I are both relatively new to the Waterloo-Cedar Falls area, so we decided to go learn more about its history at the museum. We were not disappointed...it greatly exceeded my expectations. To give context, I am native to the Chicago area so I grew up going to places like the Field Museum or Museum of Science and Industry. That said, my standards and expectations were not very high for this museum, but I believe my jaw visibly dropped and I turned to my wife to say, "wow," because I didn't expect to see such a nice, modern museum in Waterloo."
